

Conference: Poles in the Near East, 2018

For the third time we would like to invite scholars involved in Polish archaeological and related projects in the Near East to take part in the annual conference "Poles in the Near East". This year's edition will take place on 8th and 9th of June. The event is co-organized by the Polish Centre of Mediterranean Archaeology, University of Warsaw and the Department of Near Eastern Archaeology, Institute of Archaeology, University of Warsaw.

The territorial scope of the event is broad, and includes also the Arabian Peninsula, Central Asia and Transcaucasia, as well as their interactions with neighboring regions. The presentations may pertain to excavation results, material studies, analyses and other research connected with the fieldwork of Polish missions or by Polish researchers active in the area. The presentations will be grouped in five thematic sessions. Poster presentations are also invited.

Original proposals, including presentation title, names (and affiliations) of authors, and abstract (up to 1 500 characters long) should be submitted by e-mail to Dr Zuzanna Wygnańska ziwygnan@uw.edu.pl, with "Poles in the Near East 2018" included in the title. Papers based on conference presentations are eligible for publication in the journal Polish Archaeology in the Mediterranean.

Proposed thematic sessions:

1. Archaeological surveys: results, methods and challenges
2. The early periods (from the Palaeolithic till Alexander the Great): excavations, syntheses, analyses
3. The late periods (from Alexander the Great till the Middle Ages): excavations, syntheses, analyses
4. Conservation and heritage management
5. Bioarchaeology
and
6. Poster session
