

THE LCP AND POTTERY OF NUBIA CERAMICS OF ANCIENT NUBIA

PROGRAM

TUESDAY, MAY 22, 2:30 – 5:45 PM

2:30–3:00

Introduction to the LCP

ANDREA M. BERLIN; James R. Wiseman Chair in Classical Archaeology, Boston University

3:00–4:30 Individual presentations

3:00–3:30

Meroe Region – Fabrics: observations of the usual and the unusual

SASKIA BUECHNER; UCL Qatar (Iron in Kush), German archaeological Institute (Hamadab and Pyramids)

Fabrics and Forms of the Musawwarat es Sufra pottery workshop

MANJA WETENDORF; Humboldt Universität Berlin / Topoi Exellez Cluster

3:30–3:45

Pottery fabrics from the archaeological site of Wad Ben Naga: typology and analyses

VLASTIMIL VRTAL, JIŘI HONZL; National Museum, Czech Republic

3:45–4:00

Dongola Reach. El-Zuma Tumuli – local pottery from Early Makuria period

EWA CZYŻEWSKA-ZALEWSKA; Polish Centre of Mediterranean Archaeology, University of Warsaw

4:00–4:15

Pottery from the Southern Dongola Reach. Local and imported forms and fabrics from Meroitic to Medieval Periods

ANETA CEDRO; Institute of Mediterranean and Oriental Cultures Polish Academy of Sciences

4:15–4:30

Coffee/tea break

4:30–4:45

Ceramic of “Funj” Period in Dongola – wares, manufacture techniques, forms

ANNA WODZIŃSKA; Institute of Archaeology, University of Warsaw

4:45–5:00

Pottery from Ethiopia – Regional repertoire and its links to Sudanese models

SARAH JAPP, MARLENE KÖSTER; German Archaeological Institute, Orient Department, Sanaa Branch

5:00–5:45

Group discussion about Sudanese ceramic wares and production groups

(discussion referring to the pottery presented in the previous panel)

6:30

Dinner

WEDNESDAY, MAY 23, 9:00 – 12:00 AM/PM

9:00–10:15

Group discussion about Sudanese geology, soils, petro-fabrics and Sudanese regional demarcations

(Participants will have the opportunity to examine pottery samples under the microscope throughout this session)

10:15–10:30

Coffee/tea break

10:30–11:30

Submitting Information to the LCP: Demonstration and Discussion

11:30–12:00

Wrap-up discussion and plans for next steps

Venue: Staszic Palace, Nowy Świat st. 72, room 006